With reference to your Memorandum No.

18506-1/H dated 9th September 1939, I have the honour to state as follows:-

So far as I am personally aware and so far as the records in the office show, and even after careful enquiry into the matter, I find that there is no evidence of a letter having been received from the President, South Kanara District Harijan Savak Sangha.

Under these circumstances the answers to questions No.2 and 3 do not arise.
